Wisconsin AIHA Meeting Announcement

Topic: "Michael Rosenow – AIHA Local Section Representative: News from National and Update on Nanomaterial EHS Issues at Argonne National Laboratory"

Presented by: Michael Rosenow, MPH, CIH, CSP
AIHA Local Section Regional Representative

Michael Rosenow has over 15 years of experience in the EHS field. Currently he serves as the Industrial Hygienist addressing engineered nanomaterial EHS issues for Argonne National Laboratory located outside of Chicago IL. Previously he's worked in heavy industry for Caterpillar as well as in the electronics industry for Motorola, among other firms. He's the AIHA Local Section Regional Representative for nine local sections in the Central Region as well as the Chair of the Nanotechnology Working Group and a Chicago Local Section Past President. Michael earned an MPH from the University of Michigan On Job/ On Campus program, a BS in Environmental Health from Illinois State University and a BA in Biology from Illinois Wesleyan University. He is also a CIH, CSP.

This is the first local section he's visited during his LSRR term and is very excited to hear any and all feedback from the members.
